

DAEHN PUBLICATIONS NOW AVAILABLE FROM C. L. BARNHOUSE

January 3, 2017 - Daehn Publications is excited to announce the C. L. Barnhouse Co. as its exclusive distributor, effective January 1, 2017.

With its first publications in 1987, Daehn Publications was founded by Larry D. Daehn, featuring band arrangements of two Percy Grainger classics. Since that time, Daehn has published over 300 compositions and arrangements for concert band and string orchestra, featuring popular composers Larry Daehn, Pierre LaPlante, Rob Grice, Chris Bernotas, and others. Many Daehn publications have become band standards, and are featured prominently on many state repertoire lists. The company has been based in New Glarus, Wisconsin since its inception, and managed by Larry Daehn.

“I’m so happy to hand over this music to the Barnhouse Company,” said Daehn. “I’m looking forward to my retirement, and I know the people at Barnhouse will do a great job of keeping my catalogue available.”

“We are thrilled to work with Larry and be his distributor,” stated Andy Clark, C. L. Barnhouse Co. President. “It’s a really great catalog, and we think it’s a perfect fit for us.”

Music retailers who previously purchased music from Daehn Publications should contact Max Maddy, Operations Manager at C. L. Barnhouse Co., using contact information below.

C. L. Barnhouse Co., music publishers since 1886, is headquartered in Oskaloosa, Iowa. An industry leader in music for bands, orchestras, jazz, and other instrumental ensembles, Barnhouse also serves as distributor for several prominent catalogs.

For more information, contact:

C. L. Barnhouse Co.
205 Cowen Avenue W.
P. O. Box 680
Oskaloosa, IA 52577
(877) 673-8397
FAX (641) 673-4718
orders@barnhouse.com
questions@barnhouse.com